Platinotype Photographs.

Mr. L. HART, F. R. M. S., lecturer of the Ballarat School of Mines, and of the Working Men's College, Melbourne writes as follows:

"The Platinotype process is decidedly the most perfect process of photographic printing, as the metal is not affected by any sulphurous fumes or compounds such as are found in the atmosphere, whereas other processes are easily attacked by them.

"The impression is indeed unalterable and were it possible to hold a platinotype print in the hand for several hundreds of years the paper would crumble and rot away, but the photographic platinotype image would remain intact.

"L. HART."
If you wish your pictures printed in platinotype, see that you do not get imitations.

THE LIVES OF THE OWNERS

"All Kinds of People to Make Up a World."—Characteristics and Careers Outlined.

Question No. 5—Ambitious, accumulative talent well marked. Strong individuality, with assertive and rather stubborn tendencies. Considerable magnetism and good power of expression. Studious, sympathetic, love music and have an irascible temper. Domestic inclinations, love a comfortable home. Will marry once; will have a very serious illness or accident and attain the age of sixty-eight.

D. D.—You are irritable, excitable, and intensely egotistical. Are probably slow to fall in love. You long to see the world, not so much for the pleasure of sight seeing as for the advancement possible to a traveler. You have little patience with youthful enthusiasm, or the innocent pleasures of childhood. You pride yourself upon being a man of the world, and in this phrase excuse many a thoughtless and selfish act, while it often proves a snare to your conscience. You will marry once late in life and your choice will be a widow who has little depth of character, but imagine yourself to be a man of considerable force.

Pansy Blossom—You are used to wealth and luxury, and you are blase and surfeited with the good things of life. You are good-hearted and affectionate, but inconstant. You have spent much time in travel, and an equal amount of time in flirting. You will not marry young, because you have little time to be serious. You would make a good violinist, but could not sew a gunnysack together. Although you are somewhat energetic you lack perseverance. Your life will be monotonous from the smoothness that money will impart to your path, but at the age of thirty-eight you will have some adventure that will give you the excitement and mental stimulant you require. You will have six children.

A Person—You have great mechanical ability and an investigating mind. Will travel a great deal and have an eventful life. Will have an unfortunate marriage, but after many reverses fortune will smile upon you. Your life line is strong, and you can expect to attain a ripe old age. Political life will hold you for a time. Warm hearted, earnest and sincere; your violent temper and obstinacy will cause you much trial and sorrow.

Lucile Teapot—You are dainty, delicious, darling and docile. A great favorite and a happy friend. You are sensitive, high strung and somewhat nervous. Your life will be far from commonplace, and you will never lack attention from the opposite sex. You will marry twice and be a good mother. You are more than usually fond of music and have a good ear. You will travel considerably, and will soon start off on a trip which will hold unusual interest for you. Your constitution is not robust, and you should avoid over-exertion. You would make a fascinating actress if you cultivated your tastes in that line.

Olaf—This is the hand of a flirt. Successful because you have no heart, while appearing to be all heart from your flattering opinion of manner. You are particularly clever in your methods, and think that to be all things to all girls you must convincingly impart the impression that you are an uncertain quantity to each. You could accomplish many things, as you are energetic and clever, but you have too many irons in the fire at once. You will, however, hold a position of honor when you are about forty-five, and you are destined to meet many noted and talented people. You will not marry until after fifty, and your marriage will occur abroad.

Colonel—Remarkable linguistic talent. A sensitive, sympathetic nature. Rather a delicate constitution, and line of health much broken. You will never marry, but a woman plays a strong part in your life. A few warm friends will be a solace to your very quiet existence. Only moderate fortune will attend you, and you will live to about middle age.

Anaconda—You are alert and independent; rather jealous, very suspicious, particularly of girls. You analyze motives and remarks and find a subtle significance in the simplest sentences. This tendency to distrust interferes largely with your happiness and content. You will be apt to accomplish anything you undertake; your best financial luck will be before you are forty. You will never marry, but will have many love affairs. You are too selfish and calculating, and although you realize your faults, you have not the strength or desire to conquer them.

Priscilla—Domestic, dignified, devoted to home. Loyal, patient and patriotic. Strength of character that inspires confidence. Deeply religious, with a true piety that is free from cant. Practical, with a calm judgment that brings friends and relatives to you for advice. Housewifely instinct, and a genius for order. No special talent for music or art. Will make an unfortunate marriage with one unworthy of you in every respect. Your family and religion will be your comfort. Your life will be monotonous, but sustained by your high moral courage.

Tuppence—This palm has been mislaid. If another is sent it will be read in due time.

AN EPIDEMIC OF WHOOPING COUGH.

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—John E. The attention of those having capital to invest is called to the fact, that no city in the United States or probably no city in the world offers better opportunities to make profitable or fortunate investments in Real Estate than does the city of San Francisco at the present time.

A great many reasons can be given why San Francisco realty will advance in value from now on.

I offer my experience and knowledge of values to intending buyers of business properties or residence sites. I can submit some very desirable purchases of Real Estate that will yield a fine income and steadily advance in value.

Information cheerfully given. Parties coming from the Islands who desire to invest are requested to call. I will be happy to correspond with any who may wish to obtain information in regard to San Francisco Real Estate.

Full charge taken of property and taxes paid for absent owner.
